The story of Mastering Alchemy How it all began Mastering Alchemy started out of a question, out of a possibility. It was an experiment put forward by the Teachers of Light. In 2003, Jim Self was told by Metatron that there was another possible path for individuals to move more easily out of the reactionary third dimension into a new higher dimensional realm within consciousness. Into a level of mastery, as Kathumi later explained, to have the ability to manage every thought, feeling, and emotion in every moment. Mastering Alchemy founder Jim Self has been in communication with these Teachers since childhood, but the question was still unexpected. Jim had already stepped away from a successful career in government and the biotech industry and had been teaching classes on clairvoyance and telepathy. Was he interested in trying this experiment with the Archangels and Ascended Masters? Yes! What started as small conversations with a handful of participants grew into the courses, concepts, energy tools, and exercises offered today. Many of the conversation audios with the Archangels and Ascended Masters are inside coursework starting in Level 2. With the assistance of channel Joan Walker, this format made it easy for all listening to be able to be instructed. The experiment has been a huge success and thousands of people have gone through the coursework and still enjoy it today as it continues to unfold in their personal evolution. The practical application of the concepts and easy-to-use energy tools established a playbook for success. We hear from so many about how it actually works. And as the light today continues to expand and ignite hearts and minds, the opportunity to align and activate the Lightbody, a cohesive energetic system, is extraordinary. The information and audio recordings in the coursework accelerate awareness and provide anchor points to access the ever-expanding energy fields and consciousness. Ultimately, by engaging and experimenting, it leads to personal empowerment, higher awareness, and effortless creation. The coursework continues to evolve today along with each individual, as it is always experienced in present time. Each brings their experience and expertise that widens the path for others, as they pioneer their own, just as Jim Self did. And so it continues today and Mastering Alchemy has become a vibrant global community where individuals can explore their potential and create a life of balance, joy, and purpose. The courses have been surprising, intense and wonderfully intricate with my own life which made it easier to understand how to live it in practical terms. Thank you. At 24 he was elected to two terms as Vice Mayor of San Jose. He was then asked by the President of the US to be the Director of Governmental Affairs for the Department of Energy. He has built, grown and sold three successful corporations. With a foot in two worlds, Jim grew up clairvoyant, very intuitive and often invalidated by others, like so many sensitive, spiritual aware humans (you?). Guided by the internal wisdom of the Heart, he's been asked to bring a Pathway into existence in the form of Mastering Alchemy. Not a Pathway of "Truth" but a pathway of Choice. This path has been co-created with Ascended Masters and the Archangelic realm and has assisted tens of thousands to begin to know themselves and why they came here. Jim's deeper insights and clear wisdom have created a solid rail for many to explore and discover their own individual paths of choice, happiness and wellbeing; and to enjoy themselves. Co-Founder Roxane Burnett Roxane Burnett creates a balanced place for others to have fun - namely, Jim, and the rest of us! "When I took this body, I could remember where I came from. Home. And what I experienced here was Not That! So I was on a mission to find Home, here in my life. Backpacked alone from London to Katmandu. Lived in a Kibbutz. Explored intentional communities in the US. Lived in Haight-Ashbury. Finally resigned myself to the fact that what I remembered didn't exist here. Then I stumbled into Jim and discovered I had it all along: Within me. According to spiritual guide Jim Self, founder of Mastering Alchemy, humanity is collectively transitioning from the third dimension (3D) into a transformative fifth-dimensional (5D) consciousness. Jim explains that the 3D to 5D shift involves humanity awakening from a limited, fear-based reality into one characterized by well-being and empowerment. In the third dimension, life revolves around linear time, duality, and conditioned reactions. Many feel stuck due to fear, uncertainty, and outdated beliefs. "The mass population is waking up, saying this isn't okay," says Jim. This global awakening drives the powerful shift towards 5D, a dimension filled with joy, freedom, and authentic self-expression. Central to the 3D to 5D shift is the vital choice we each face: stepping forward into joy and possibility, or remaining stuck in fear and limitation. Jim notes, "The vibration of fear and excitement are identical." Our conscious choice determines how we navigate the transition from 3D to 5D. Jim emphasizes we cannot carry our old emotional baggage—fears, self-doubt, or conditioned patterns—into the fifth dimension. Successfully navigating the 3D to 5D transition involves letting go of past hurts, judgments, and limiting beliefs, thereby stepping into greater clarity and joy. Jim recommends maintaining present-moment awareness, consciously choosing positive, empowering thoughts, and recognizing our innate power as creators. "It's impossible to do this wrong when you allow yourself to be you," he encourages. By consciously embracing these practices, we facilitate our own smooth 3D to 5D transition, creating lives abundant in freedom, joy, and well-being.
