Elton John is an English singer and composer, born in 1974 and with a heavy experience and history behind.He sold more than 300 million albums and worked with more than 50 artists.Sacrifice was written by John and Bernie Taupin, and it was released in October 1989 first time and second in May 1990. He wrote Looking Up in 2015, as part of the album named Wonderful Crazy Night.The song is part of the Rock and Roll genre and looking into its composition, we can find elements like piano, vocals, and guitar.It is a really simple composition and easy to play at your piano with the help of the free Looking Up piano sheets from our website.The message of the song is positive, trying to give an energetic vibe and as Bernie Taupin said, he felt like there was "enough pain and suffering in the world" so he wanted to bring something in the world "that exuded positive energy".Looking Up music video is full of colors and invites you to feel the positive vibe and "look up". Elton John is an English singer that gave us a lot of great songs. The real story behind the lyrics is mainly about a former lover and how Elton is still standing after the breakup.The lyrics are about finding confidence again and being strong after a relationship ends, the reason why the song went very well on a younger audience but not only, being a general subject,John declared about the song that "my reaction to still being relevant and successful in the early 1980s, post-punk and with the New Romantics creeping in".The song went directly number 1 in most of the charts, mainly peaking at number 1 in Canada and Switzerland and 4th place and 12th in the UK and US.The video for I'm Still Standing was directed by Russel Mulcahy, which was filmed in France and it features the colors of the French flag.During the filming of the video, John knew and became friends with Simon Le Bon, a member of the Duran Duran band, over a glass of martini that actually turned into six. Scroll to read moreHello music lovers, today I am sharing the piano notes of the song Elton John-Border Song. Sacrifice became Elton John's first solo number-one single in the UK charts.Looking into free Sacrifice piano sheets, we can find the composer included instruments like digital piano, electric guitar, drums, keyboards, and vocal.Sacrifice was also recorded by Don Henley and Vince Gill for the 2018 tribute named Restoration: Reimagining the Songs of Elton John and Bernie Taupin, and also a version by Sinead O'Connor in 1991. The main subject is a broken marriage, where the loss of the relationship itself is "no sacrifice".The video explains this idea, following the story of the lyrics and showing a woman and a man having problems in their marriage and having to break up. The video features Chris Isaak as the main character in the story.Through this song, Elton tries to send the message that divorce happens, people and relationships just start falling apart sometimes and he explains that this is not a sacrifice, just "two hearts living/ In two separate worlds".After the end of their relationship, the woman finds her way and the husband raises his daughter alone.Even if the story and the song itself are sad and sorrowful, Sacrifice is considered to be evergreen and it is appreciated nowadays by millions of fans.Find free Sacrifice piano sheet music on our website and play it in your home by downloading it as PDF files below.
