

I'm not robot

Continue

51949520.352941 39481527.703704 93562674.272727 24672594.733333 44281907562 23612439344 19197844.607143 7069573.8510638 141344991612 285374650 14900458.06 36289377.560976 460191851.75 2143110671 23166730692 53951756.888889 20237869.807692 62048405520 10490680.742857

Things to do in Munduk Bali: Sekumpul Waterfall Munduk Waterfall is just another stop at the side of the road to the Balinese. Things to do in Munduk Bali: Wanagiri Hidden Hills Nungnung Waterfall is a great place to stop off on the journey between Ubud and Munduk, and is one of our favourite waterfalls in the whole of Bali. Sunda Kelapa Restaurant Bali Image credit: Restoran Sunda Kelapa – Bali If you're a foodie, you have to try Betawi cuisine at Sunda Kelapa Restaurant Bali. Warung Igelanca Image credit: palachinkaa (left), krisna kdi (right) If you're looking for a halal warung in Ubud, Warung Igelanca is here for you. Things to do in Munduk Bali: The Water Temple These are the 8 best things to do in Munduk: It is worth going all the way to Munduk just for Pura Ulun Danu Bratan Temple. Want a take a walk on the wild side? Munduk with its gorgeous country roads, and low levels of traffic was a breath of fresh air. Queen's Tandoor Image credit: Bali Indian Restaurant – Queens Tandoor If the roti canai did not satisfy your Indian food craving, Queen's Tandoor will do the trick. It is definitely one of the best waterfalls in Bali. The road (the last 3km of it) is in pretty bad shape so go slow if you are on a scooter. The icing on the cake has to be the halal-certified mouth-watering Western and Asian dishes, such as Broccoletti Risotto and Traditional Gulai Kambing, that are offered in the restaurant. Some prawn dishes you must order are their Udang Bakar Madu Super and Sup Udang Kelapa Muda. Please dine at your own discretion. #HZtip: Although the restaurant is not halal-certified, the restaurant is pork-free and doesn't use alcohol in their cooking. If you want a break from the salty waters, Waterbomb is the place to go. It is said that Bali Buda bakes over 500 loaves of bread each morning! #HZtip: They also have two other outlets on the island. Address: Jl. Kediri No.41, Kuta, Kabupaten Badung, Bali 80361, Indonesia Opening hours: 9am – 10pm Contact: 0361-233481/0361-756995 4. This halal burger shack serves up amazing burgers and sandwiches at affordable prices. This charming little warung will certainly give you a problem: deciding what to eat! With a selection of three types of rice – white rice, yellow rice and red rice – and more than 40 delectable dishes, choosing what you want on your plate is one problem you wouldn't mind having. The accommodation is a set of faded villas that had grand ideas but didn't really follow through. It is an ok place to stay for a couple of days, but it is rough round the edges and could do with a really thorough clean. Now that you know where to seek delicious Halal food in Bali, go out there and enjoy the many sights and activities the island paradise has in store for you! 0 Raja's Balinese Cuisine Image credit: Nusa Dua Beach Hotel & Spa Located within Nusa Dua Beach Hotel & Spa, get ready to feast like a raja (king) at the halal-certified Raja's Balinese Cuisine. Don't forget to dip the delectable chicken into their spicy sambal! The well-spiced chicken simply goes well with the extra kick of spiciness. We chose to hire a driver for ease. You can drive from Ubud to Munduk on a motorbike, but it will probably take a little longer and requires navigating some twisting and narrow mountain roads. #HZtip: Although the restaurant is not halal-certified, you can request for your seafood to be cooked separately. This small island is home to an incredible culture, volcanoes, rice terraces, wild beaches and some of the friendliest locals you could hope to meet. Address: Jl. Raya Kuta No.88R, Kuta, Kabupaten Badung, Bali 80361, Indonesia Opening hours: 10am – 11pm 2. Let us know in the comments below! It is a fact that the Indonesian island of Bali is synonymous with island paradise. With authentic halal Indian cuisine prepared by Indian chefs, Queen's Tandoor is known to be the best Indian restaurant in Bali. Alcoholic beverages are served in the restaurant. #HZtip: They also have one outlet in Kuta (Jln. North 4, Benoa, Kuta Selatan, Benoa, Kuta Sel., Kabupaten Badung, Bali 80363, Indonesia Opening hours: 12pm – 12am Bonus: Fast-food Restaurants If you're craving some good old golden fries or crispy fried chicken, you'll be happy to know that the major international fast food chains, such as McDonald's, KFC, Burger King and Dunkin Donuts are halal-certified in Bali! You can easily find these fast food outlets in the popular tourist hot spots such as Kuta, Jimbaran and Nusa Dua. Jempiring Restaurant offers an extensive menu including Western, Middle Eastern and Asian cuisines. Nyoman Cafe Jimbaran To taste some of the freshest seafood you'll ever have in your life, dine at Nyoman Cafe Jimbaran. However, in Bali it is just another waterfall. The twin falls here are huge and the walk down feels like you are entering Jurassic Park. Address: Jl. Jembawan 1 No.1, Ubud, Kabupaten Gianyar, Bali 80571, Indonesia Opening hours: 7am – 10pm 15. Wearing a bag with a single cross strap is like a red flag to a bull as thieves see this as an easy snatch. Tamarind Mediterranean Brasserie Image credit: Nusa Dua Beach Hotel & Spa Tamarind Mediterranean Brasserie is also located within the premises of Nusa Dua Beach Hotel & Spa. One of their bestsellers is the Chiken Handi, which is chicken curry cooked in a clay pot, enjoyed with a side of naan bread. Ayam Bakar Wong Solo Image credit: Ayam Bakar Wong Solo Are you a fan of chicken? Nourish your body at these halal eateries: 6. However, with about 83.5% of the population subscribing to Balinese Hinduism, most Muslim travellers might find it hard to find Muslim-friendly food on the island. You can choose their fresh first-grade seafood from a wide array of seafood baskets and packages, which includes lobsters, king prawns and crabs. They are almost unbelievably green, and an absolutely gorgeous place to go for a stroll. The traditional market gives you a peek into the local's daily life as homemakers shop for groceries and offerings. It's time to fill your tummy at these halal establishments: 9. Address: Jl. Raya Seminyak No.1/73, Seminyak, Kuta, Kabupaten Badung, Bali 80361, Indonesia Opening hours: 11.30am – 3pm, 5.30pm – 11pm 8. If anyone in your party still hasn't gotten their fill of Indonesian food, there are also some Indonesian favourites on the menu. Ubud is also known as the cultural hub of Bali. Warung Bunana Image credit: Yu Chi Cherry (left), Surjati Soekraman (right) Yes, you saw that right, there's roti canai and teh tarik in Bali! Warung Bunana serves up a variety of roti canai (flatbread), from flavours such as onion and egg, chocolate and sugar. Bawang Merah Beachfront Restaurant Image credit: Bawang Merah Beachfront Restaurant Jimbaran If you're looking for a more secluded and spacious oceanside seafood restaurant, Bawang Merah Beachfront Restaurant is the perfect place to get away from the crowd. At best you'll lose your bag. Nakula No. 88, Sunset Road, Kuta 80361, Bali). Address: Jalan Segara Madu Pantai Kelan, Jimbaran Bay, Bali 80361 Opening hours: 12pm – 10pm Also read: Muslim-Friendly 5DAN Bandung Itinerary: Halal Food & Fun Things to Do! Nusa Dua If you want a taste of the high life, Nusa Dua is the place for you. Raya Kuta No. 87, Tuban, Kuta, Bali, Indonesia). Take a leisurely stroll in Bali's serene parks such as the one near the Bajra Sandhi Monument and Lapangan Puputan Badung. They serve seafood that is freshly caught on the same day! Once you have chosen your picks, your seafood will be doused in either garlic butter, tomato or chili sauce. The weather tended to be clear over every afternoon in Munduk, so for clear skies go early, you won't regret it. Though we mention that Munduk is much less busy than other parts of Bali, this is still a popular temple, so an early visit will also mean you miss the crowds too. Banyumala waterfall is stunning, and you can hear the water from really far away. You can swing for as long as you want. Their seafood dishes, such as Ikan Bakar Temp Dooleo and Ikan Nila Pesmol, are fan favourites. Address: Sunset Road No.8, Kuta, Badung Regency, Bali 80361, Indonesia Opening hours: 11am – 10.30pm 5. Their popular dishes include the Diavola Pizza and Pollo Pesto. Warung Nikmat Image credit: Kristian Pohan Bali When in Indonesia, eating at a local warung (shop) is a must! Located at the heart of Kuta, Warung Nikmat serves up tantalising halal Indonesian cuisine. Address: Jl. Gatot Subroto Barat, Pemecutan Kaja, Denpasar Utara, Kota Denpasar, Bali 80111, Indonesia Opening hours: Open 24 hours 10. Had your fill of Balinese culture? The beach is also an excellent surfing spot for both beginners and experts as the waves are long and consistent. Nusa Dua is home to loads of water sports companies which offer a huge selection of water activities, such as jet-skiing, parasailing and banana boat rides. However, Bali also has a few traps, and for first-time visitors there are definitely some mistakes you want to avoid. Next time! Check prices & reviews on: This post may contain affiliate links, meaning at no additional cost to you, that we will earn a small commission if you click through and decide to make a purchase. We chose to stay in Bedugul as this seemed to be fairly central to all the things we wanted to do in Munduk. Every Thursday is Italian night at the restaurant! Delight your taste buds with authentic Italian dishes such as cannelloni, lasagna and ravioli. There are several marked walking trails, allowing you to get a great feel for the area. Things to do in Munduk Bali: Jatiluwih In all directions you'll see steep terraces, with the Bratan Volcano as a stunning backdrop. Likewise, there's plenty of things for tourists to do and see in the area. There aren't too many options here, but we chose to stay at CLV Villas. You can also witness nature's forces at Water Blow where seawater is sent shooting up into the sky. Halal Ubud Burger Image credit: Halal Ubud Burger Located along the same street as Ubud Palaces and Ubud Art Market, Halal Ubud Burger is a convenient food spot to fuel up. If you want to bring home traditional Balinese handicrafts as souvenirs, Ubud Art Market has everything you're looking for. Yearning for some yummy food after all that exploring? Besides being an island paradise, Kuta is also a shopper's paradise! Beachwalk, a large mall located adjacent to the beach, is stocked with international and local stores where you can shop till you drop. Address: Jalan Popies II No.47, Kuta, Badung Regency, Bali 80361, Indonesia Opening hours: 9am – 12am Also read: Top 10 Halal Food Bloggers to Follow in 2019 Seminyak and North Kuta Seminyak and North Kuta are more upscale and secluded as compared to Kuta. We weren't overly confident about scooting too far in the dark so the location was key. Check the latest prices & reviews on: Luxury - Munduk Moding Plantation! If we were on a shorter trip (with a bigger budget) we would definitely have chosen to stay in the Munduk Moding Plantation which looks absolutely incredible and has an amazing infinity pool. We still love Ubud, but on our most recent visit found it more crowded than we were expecting. Famed for their verdant forests, pristine beaches and colourful culture, Bali is a hit with Muslim travellers everywhere. It's also less than 1km from the Pura Ulun Danu Bratan temple and just over 1km from Handara Golf Course, both of which we wanted to visit at sunrise. Then head on over to Bali Sea Turtle Society, a turtle hatchery where you can watch cute baby turtles released into the ocean during hatching season. #HZtip: Although the food is halal, alcohol is served in the establishment. You are guaranteed to enjoy the freshest Indonesian and international cuisines, such as Bali Bunda Tacos and Vegetarian Nasi Goreng. This award-winning restaurant takes the humble Balinese cuisine to the next level, while still retaining its authentic, traditional flavour. Being the main hub of the island, Denpasar is always in a flurry of activity. In the middle of the day, the light can get pretty harsh, casting shadows on the gate. The worst of these are those who ride on motorbikes and swipe bags from tourists walking on the pavement, or on a scooter themselves. Highly popular with both locals and tourists, most dishes will be sold out after 2pm! Address: Jl. Bakung Sari, Gg. Biduri No.6A, Badung, Kuta, Bali 80361, Indonesia Opening hours: 8am – 9pm 3. Numerous luxurious resorts and beach clubs are sprinkled over these areas. But to those of us who don't have huge waterfalls in our backyard, it is another stunning place to check out. As many people choose to go to more famous waterfall in the area, like Gitgit, it is likely that you will have Munduk Waterfall all to yourself! (Just like a lot of the waterfalls we have mentioned). Address: Jl. Pantai Jimbaran No.5, Jimbaran, Kuta Sel., Kabupaten Badung, Bali 80361, Indonesia Opening hours: Mondays: 11am – 10pm, Tuesdays to Saturdays: 11am – 10.30pm, Sundays: 11am – 11pm 17. With thrilling rides, such as the Boomerang and the Climax, to kid-friendly water playgrounds, there's something for the whole family! Feeling peckish after all those activities? If you're looking for souvenirs, the Badung Market is highly recommended. Tourists flock to Kuta Beach to chill and relax while lying on its soft golden sand. Being more upscale than other districts of Bali, many high-end resorts with their own private beaches are located here. Other than basking in the sunshine, you can also go horse riding on Seminyak Beach. Don't fret! Here's a list of Muslim-friendly eateries near Bali's most popular hot spots where you can get your grub on. Drop by one of the many affordable spas that line the coastline when you need to soothe those aching feet. The journey from Ubud to Munduk takes approximately 1.5 hours by car. Address: Kawasan BTDC Pariwisata Nusa Dua Lot. Want some action? Besides the scenic views, daily Balinese dance performances are also arranged to enrich your Balinese experience. The swing here is over the lake, and it is a truly beautiful view. It costs 50,000 rupiah (around $3.5 USD) which is still a lot for a swing, but if you want that amazing shot... Would you venture north to Munduk? When in Ubud, a visit to the iconic Tegallalang Rice Terrace is a must. You get to dine under an incredible bamboo thatched roof while enjoying sensational panoramic views of the ocean. If you put the effort in, you will be rewarded with this incredible place, hopefully all to yourself. Things to do in Munduk Bali: Banyumala Waterfall If you're thinking of visiting Banyumala, then check out our blog which has everything you need to know about visiting this incredible waterfall. Other waterfalls you may like: Tuked Cepung and Tibumana. Betawi cuisine is an eclectic mix of Indonesian, Chinese, Indian, Arab and European flavours. To cool down from the Balinese heat, choose from the wide variety of teas and juices Warung Igelanca has to offer. You could take a dip here, but we were content just to stare for a long while, it's truly breathtaking place. Things to do in Munduk Bali: Nungnung Waterfall Ok, we put this in the best things to do in Ubud blog as well, but as Jatiluwih is between Ubud and Munduk, we felt it should be in both! These Unesco World Heritage Rice Terraces are 45 minutes outside of Munduk and another perfect stop off on your way to, or from Ubud. You'll zip through the jungle, past dozens of monkeys, huge waterfalls, and lush greenery. Address: Jl. Danau Buyan No.36, Sanur, Denpasar Sel., Kota Denpasar, Bali 80227, Indonesia Opening hours: 7am – 7.30pm Ubud Nestled in Bali's lush forests away from the beaches, Ubud reveals another side to this island paradise. The restaurant specialises in halal Sundanese cuisine; the cuisine of the people of West Java. Instead of going to the touristy Tanah Lot Temple, visit the less-visited Pura Petitenget, one of six important sea temples in Bali. The Betawi people are an ethnic group native to the city of Batavia (modern day Jakarta). Whether you like it sweet or savoury, Warung Bunana has got you covered. Kuta Kuta is the most happening area on the island. Wind down in the evening with a leisurely stroll down Nusa Dua Promenade, a seven-kilometre-long walkway that lines the coastline. After getting your roti canai fix, wash it all down with a satisfying cup of frothy teh tarik (pulled milk tea). Their sauces are packed with flavour which nicely complements the grilled seafood. Deliziosa Pizza & Pasta Image credit: Deliziosa Pizza If you want a break from Indonesian cuisine, head down to Deliziosa Pizza & Pasta for some Italian food instead. Don't forget to order some fresh coconut juice to wash it all down. Bali Buda Cafe & Health Food Shops Bali Buda prides themselves by serving delicious nourishing food that is made with local organic and sustainable ingredients. -> Are you planning a trip to Bali? Address: Jl. Raya Goa Gajah, Peliatan, Ubud, Kabupaten Gianyar, Bali 80571, Indonesia Opening hours: 11 am – 10pm Jimbaran Located south of Kuta, Jimbaran is a charming fishing village dotted with coastal resorts. After several visits and a few months spent in Bali, we've put together the most common mistakes to avoid for an epic trip. Address: Jalan Merdeka No.19, Sumerta Kelod, Denpasar Timur, Panjar, Denpasar Sel., Kota Denpasar, Bali 80239, Indonesia Opening hours: 10am – 10.30pm 11. Page 2 Whilst most people tend to stick to popular areas such as Ubud and Kuta, those who venture further afield will be highly rewarded. For the shopaholics, there's definitely no shortage of shops here in Seminyak and North Kuta areas. Address: Jl. Arjuna No. 99, Legian, Kuta, Seminyak, Kuta, Kabupaten Badung, Bali 80361, Indonesia Opening hours: 8am – 10.45pm Denpasar Image credit: Ya, saya inBaliTimur Denpasar is the capital city of Bali province. With a wide array of locally made wood carvings, textiles, jewellery and more, you'll definitely find the right souvenir for all your loved ones. Time to fuel up at one of these eateries in Kuta: 1. Avoiding the edge of the pavement may also help! This isn't unique to Bali and you shouldn't be afraid of travelling here but being aware will ensure it doesn't happen to you. With a team of award-winning chefs in the kitchen, you can expect top-notch food. To end the day on a high note, enjoy the sunset while enjoying a meal at one of these Muslim-friendly oceanside seafood restaurants: 16. Warung Murah Double Six Image credit: Ayumi Koizum (left), Naz Modenas (right) Located close to Double Six Beach, this humble warung has garnered excellent reviews from many crowd-sourced review forums. Bali Thai391A Orchard Road #05-29 Ngee Ann City Podium Bk238873SingaporeGet directions Bali is one of those bucket list destinations everyone has to visit at least once in their lifetime. Address: Jl. Raya Ubud, Ubud, Kabupaten Gianyar, Bali 80571, Indonesia Opening hours: 10am – 10pm 13. At worst you'll be dragged along with it, being severely injured in the process. Even if you're not staying at one of the resorts, you can still head to the public Geger Beach to enjoy serene Nusa Dua. Café De Dapoer serves authentic Indonesian dishes with a modern twist such as Udang Bakar Sambal Matah and Sop Buntut Si Mpok. In our minds this is the most beautiful temple in Bali and is a stunning place to visit at sunrise. Their crispy Gurami and Pescod Lelie are fan favourites! #HZtip: They also have one outlet in Kuta (Jln. Besides the countless smaller shops lining the streets, you can also head to The Seminyak Village or Seminyak Shopping Street to get your shopping addiction out of your system. Bale Udang Mang Engking Ubud Image credit: Bale Udang Manges eating in a warung, you must head to Bale Udang Mang Engking Ubud and dine in a bale (bamboo hut) above a fish pond for an authentic Indonesian dining experience. Located only a stone's throw away from Beachwalk shopping mall, this halal restaurant serves up universally loved Italian dishes at affordable prices. Other than the classic cheeseburgers, Halal Ubud Burger's menu also includes a Veggie Burger, Dory Fish Burger and even Bahn Mi (a Vietnamese-style sandwich). Besides surfing and swimming, the long white-sand beach is lined with multiple oceanside seafood restaurants. Address: Jl. Raya Ubud, Padangtegal Kaja, Ubud, Kabupaten Gianyar, Bali 80571, Indonesia Opening hours: 7am – 11pm 14. As it is a little further from Ubud than many other rice terraces such as Tegallalang less people choose not to visit, making it nice and quiet. Are you an animal lover? (guilty). Jempiring Restaurant Image credit: Aston Denpasar Hotel & Convention Center Located within Aston Denpasar Hotel & Convention Center, Jempiring Restaurant is halal-certified by MUI. As indicated in the restaurant's name, udang (prawn) dishes is Halal Udang Mang Engking Ubud's speciality. Not to worry, Nusa Dua offers plenty of halal culinary delights for you to enjoy! 18. Other than chicken, Ayam Bakar Wong Solo also offers fried fish dishes as well. Not many golf courses have an entrance this magnificent, but the Handara in Bedugul does! On the road into the golf course is this stunning structure, framing the surrounding mountains and landscape. It is best to visit just after sunrise as there was no one else there on our visit (yes, this is an insta famous spot!) and the light is gorgeous. Do note that you have to place your order in advance if you want to try this special dish. It was our favourite part of the trip, and we are already dreaming about going back. We highly recommend incorporating it into your Bali itinerary. Here are 8 amazing things to do around Munduk. If you're a history buff, check out some of Bali's best museums on the island, such as the Bali Museum and Museum Le Mayeur. Head to Ubud Monkey Forest where you can get up close and personal to the cheeky Balinese long-tailed monkeys. Café De Dapoer Image credit: Café de' dapoer Located in the premises of The Rhadana Kuta Bali Hotel, Café De Dapoer is halal-certified by the MUI (Majelis Ulama Indonesia Indonesian Muslim's Council). Warung KKN Image credit: warung KKN (nasi canai) If you can't get enough of eating at warungs, here's a halal-certified warung by MUI to try next. However, its location is great and the food is incredibly cheap. The Ayam Bakar Wong Solo signature grilled or deep-fried chicken will certainly not let you down. Although it is a fair distance from Munduk and fiddly to get to, it is well worth putting in the effort. Wander around and take in the gorgeous views at the valley of rice paddies when you visit. This bjuw warung serves different types of Indonesian dishes from all over the country, such as cuisines from Java, Sulawesi and Sumatra. Famished? If you want to watch a traditional Balinese performance besides the well-known Kecak Dance, head to Tari Barong Batubulan & Keris Dance Bali which features the Barong Ket, a tiger, lion, dragon and cow hybrid. When visiting this area in Bali, Jimbaran Beach cannot be missed. While Bali is famed for its beautiful beaches and lush forests, her manicured

