Basic Dialogue Rules

The teacher said, "You are the smartest one."

Dialogue Tag Dialogue

Punctuation

Punctuation marks must separate the dialogue from the dialogue tag.

A) If the tag is first, use a comma to separate. End the quote with the correct punctuation INSIDE the quotation marks (period, exclamation point, or question mark).

Bob said, "Go outside."
 Bob yelled, "Go outside!"
 Bob asked, "Did you go outside?"

B) If the dialogue is first, use a comma for statements, question marks for questions, and exclamation points for exclamations. Then, end them all with a period.

"Go outside," Bob said.
 "Go outside!" Bob yelled.
 "Did you go outside?" Bob asked.

Capitalization

Always capitalize the first letter of dialogue inside quotation marks.

Bob said, "Go outside."
 "Go outside," Bob said.

Tags after dialogue always start with a lowercase letter, even if there is a question mark or exclamation point ending the dialogue. Only exception: Names are always capitalized (no matter what!)

"Go outside," said Bob.
 "Go outside!" yelled Bob.
 "Did you go outside?" asked Bob.

 "Go outside," Bob said.
 "Go outside!" Bob yelled.
 "Did you go outside?" Bob asked.
