EASY TO PLAY, OFFLINE SUPPORT Hungry Shark Evolution - Offline Survival is designed offline. You can still play without the need for Wi-Fi. However, if Wi-Fi is available, you can complete a few more tasks and watch ads to earn more coins and gems. Your task is to move the money shark forward, eat everything you come across on the road, sometimes you even have to attack fishing boats. This is really not good at all. It's just a game though, so don't worry. You can drive using the controls directly on the touch screen or choose a driving mode by tilting your phone. In the intuitive tilt mode that gives you a more realistic feel, sometimes tilt automatically in the direction the shark is moving. It's really worth the experience. However, to play in this mode, you need to be in a comfortable sitting position and limit lying down. Your phone must also be functionally supported. Please be careful. A FEW TIPS TO HELP YOU PLAY HUNGRY SHARK EVOLUTION Create a giant shark pod by collecting as many sharks as possible. It cleans up the food around you that you missed. Your sweeping speed will be faster and cleaner. However, you have to spend a lot of gems to get them. Eat, eat and eat. Raise your sharks by feeding them a lot. This is the only way the shark can help your shark grow up quickly. The more he gets, the better she can even eat creatures that cannot be touched at an early level, but they will also be destroyed if the shark is big enough. Of course, the shark upgrade also costs money. Save coins and gems to collect Megalodon for yourself. This is the strangest creature in the ocean. With it in hand, you become a horror to everything around you. However, if you can't unlock it yet, use the extra items in the shop to upgrade other sharks so they don't interfere with the hunt too much.
